Law firm Zbroja Adwokaci provided ongoing legal services to PTS sp. z o.o., including during a number of ship constructions, in particular with regard to:

- construction handling, including an entry in the Register of Ships under Construction of the ship NB-53,
- in terms of construction handling, including an entry in the Register of Ships under Construction of ship NB-52,
- in terms of construction handling, including registration in the Register of Ships under Construction of vessel NB-47,
- in terms of construction handling, including registration in the Register of Ships under Construction of vessel NB-45,
- in terms of construction handling of ship NB-49.

In addition, the law firm assisted the company in:

- an international dispute relating to the construction of vessels F5026/NB72 and F5027/NB73 with the Norwegian company,
- an international dispute concerning the construction of vessels NB-67 and NB-68 with the Norwegian company.

The cases required particular skills in negotiation and shipbuilding contract law. Due to several extraordinary situations that arose during the construction of the vessels.

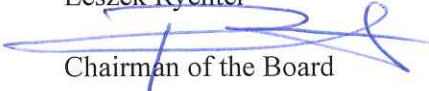

In the disputed cases, new terms of cooperation between the parties had to be defined and the contracts were based on Swedish and Danish law.

With the help of the law firm, we were able to reach a common position with the ordering party, which allowed us to end the dispute without loss on our part.

The efficiency of the law firm and its commitment to resolving the dispute as favourably as possible is noteworthy. Also, the quality of service at the interface of different languages and legal systems was a reason for our satisfaction.

We recommend the law firm Zbroja Adwokaci as a competent partner in maritime matters.
